Minutes:

No motion required. A presentation was made.

COUNCILMAN BROWN recognized the Boys Middle School Championship winners representing the Irwin and Susan Molasky Middle School. In the audience was the schools namesake, IRWIN MOLASKY, who was introduced along with the principal and assistant coaches. COUNCILMAN BROWN called forward each member of the Championship team and presented them with the Championship basketball, medals and certificates of recognition for each player.

The entire basketball team was commended by COACH JIMMY ROCKWELL, who expressed that the results of the season, in addition to winning the championship, were beyond his expectations. Expressing his pride, he complimented his players for their great achievements and team effort.

With unmistakable pride, COUNCILMAN BROWN introduced the Leavitt Middle School Girls Basketball Championship team. He called each member of the Championship Team to the podium, recognized their coaches, and presented a Championship basketball, medals and certificates of recognition.

COACH ANNETTE TURLEY thanked the Council for the recognition, which she considers a great educational opportunity for the students. Speaking of the teams accomplishments, COACH TURLEY conveyed that each of the girls has worked long and hard and, without a doubt, deserve the honor of being basketball champions. She acknowledged their dedication and determination and stated they are all winners on the court and in the classroom.
