RE: certain CLV Council Agenda Items of 4 June 2008

#27 (a Consent Resolution) Which we respectfully request to be REMOVED from the CONSENT status until an affirmation has been made public that the protestants know of this Resolution AND approve of the disposition of these protests.

45. Bill No. 2008-25 which "eliminates the requirement that a general business-related gaming establishment (which is) licensed to sell alcoholic beverages obtain a separate special use permit for the gaming use.

We note with interest the peripheral establishment of numbers of slot machines per square feet of usable floor space, etc.

Section 3: line 3 cannot be allowed to muddy the definition of GENERAL BUSINESS.

GAMING and an ALCOHOLIC BEVERAGE LICENSE are NOT and CANNOT be labeled as 'General Businesses'—such is false.

Please vote NO on this Bill No. 2008-25 which attempts tragedy.

#62 SUP-27536 Please vote a resounding NO for this 61 ft .WAIVER of distance from an ELEMENTARY school, in fact a pair of Elementary schools.

We note the "JUSTIFICATION LETTER" which to us justifies why this SUP with a WAIVER cannot be allowed by testifying that this Inc. has these locations: 3 in Clark County and 2 in Henderson, totaling 644 locations WITH liquor licenses in 31 states plus the District of Columbia.

This establishment at 7175 West Lake Mead Boulevard Suite #105 was p-l-a-n-n-e-d, not an accident.

We note the Justification Letter is identified as "the requisite" and trust that Chipotle Mexican Grill, Inc. representatives were not told that such a 'letter' would grease this grill to the very base of the tempting green slope of our ELEMENTARY school grounds

#66. SUP 23285 Please vote YES, in fact we favor at least 4 stealth wireless communication facilities in this location—so much more attractive than a single 1 enhancing the skyline.

Yours truly, CNP president, June Ingram
