Minutes:

MAYOR GOODMAN proudly introduced four young adults who are active participants in the Hope Scholars Program. He asked each student to approach the podium and disclose his future plans. Scholar Adrian was uncertain of his future plans but set his goals on completing the eighth grade and being accepted at a great high school. Scholar Christian planned to complete his years at Bishop Gorman and looked forward to college with a football scholarship. He planned to become an accountant. Scholar Josh, a student at Our Lady of Las Vegas, plans to attend Bishop Gorman and after graduating, attend the University of Hawaii. Scholar Tony is deciding whether to pursue a career as a chef or as a drama major.

MAYOR GOODMAN introduced Program Director PAUL FLORES. He expressed his appreciation to the Council for recognizing the Boys Hope Girls Hope Program. MAYOR GOODMAN asked MR. FLORES to present commendations to SCHOLARS JAMIL and ALEX since they were unable to attend.
