DEPARTMENT: OFFICE OF COMMUNICATIONS
DIRECTOR: DAVID RIGGLEMAN

SUBJECT:

RECOGNITION OF CITY EMPLOYEE MARY MCKINNEY FOR BEING CHOSEN AS PAL JOB SITE SUPERVISOR OF THE YEAR

Minutes:

COUNCILMAN BARLOW called upon DIRECTOR ROBERT BRAY of the PAL Program, SANDRA SCOTT from the Courts and MUNICIPAL COURT JUDGE CYNTHIA LEUNG to accompany MARY MCKINNEY to the podium to be recognized. COUNCILMAN BARLOW announced that MS. MCKINNEY has been with the City's Municipal Court system since 1981. In her capacity as site supervisor and mentor of the Client Services Program, MS. MCKINNEY has earned the reputation of being tough but fair and her work ethics are considered impeccable.

COUNCILMAN BARLOW asked MR. BRAY to do the presentation of the PAL Award recognizing MS. MCKINNEY for her years of participation and dedication to the PAL Program. MS. SCOTT commended MS. MCKINNEY for being an outstanding supervisor and restated how passionate she is about mentoring young people. JUDGE LEUNG spoke on behalf of the Municipal Court Judges and congratulated MS. MCKINNEY for her years of dedication and stated that this award is well deserved.

MS. MCKINNEY thanked everyone and indicated that after her retirement, she will continue to pursue her passion for working with youth. She was exceptionally proud of one of the PAL graduates who will be joining the City soon as a full-time employee.
