

City of Las Vegas

Office of the Mayor and City Council

WHEREAS; the National Recreation and Park Association brings visibility to parks and recreation, the arts, and quality sports programs; and

WHEREAS; parks and recreation facilities generate opportunities for people to come together, with all ages and abilities, to experience a sense of community through fun and educational pursuits; and

WHEREAS; parks, playgrounds, ball fields, nature trails, open spaces, community and cultural centers, and historic sites make a community attractive and desirable places to live, work, play, and visit to contribute to our ongoing economic vitality; and

WHEREAS; parks, greenways, and open space provide a welcome respite from our fast paced high tech lifestyles while protecting and preserving our natural environment; and

WHEREAS; parks and recreation agencies touch the lives of individuals, families, groups, neighborhoods, and the entire community which positively impacts upon the social, educational, economic, health and environmental quality of our community; now

THEREFORE; We, the Mayor and Members of the Las Vegas City Council, do hereby take great pride in proclaiming July, 2008 to be:

Recreation and Park Month

In the City of Las Vegas and urge all citizens to utilize and enjoy the fine parks and recreation facilities in our communities.
