Minutes:

Teddy Russell, Las Vegas resident, stated he is an expert on world economy. He sent a note to Mayor Goodman and Sen. Reid about the economy. Democrats will obtain the White House. He depends upon the expertise of City leaders, especially during this dismal economy. People will have to be innovative and passionate in order to revive the economy, but he knows that the City of Las Vegas will do well.

Member Brown announced that Chairman Kern was excused as he was called in a court case. He congratulated the committee members for being reappointed to the Audit Committee Board and thanked them for their work for the City.
