MAYOR GOODMAN invited LANCE MORAN, Senior Citizens Advisory Board, to join him at the podium.

MR. MORAN invited the audience to contact the Neighborhood Services Department to nominate any City of Las Vegas senior citizen as Senior of the Quarter for their community involvement and volunteerism.

He recognized EDNA McCOY as the Senior of the Quarter who had been nominated on June 22 by Jude 22 for her superb job as the driver for the Jude 22 Senior Nutrition Center. He stated that she delivers food items to seniors who are unable to pick up the items themselves and also volunteers her time to teach young mothers and seniors how to cook nutritious meals on a budget. He added that she prepares the annual Christmas meal for Jude 22s senior clients and transforms the donated food into a feast. He thanked MS. McCOY for her contributions to the community.

MS. McCOY thanked the Las Vegas Senior Citizens Advisory Committee, the Mayor and Council as well as Jude 22 for the opportunity to volunteer each month.
