City of Las Vegas

Office of the Mayor and City Council

WHEREAS; in 1991, retired police detective Ron Gagne established the Sun City Security Patrol with less than twenty members. The Del Webb Corporation provided the Security Patrol with the necessary equipment including patrol cars, radio equipment and uniforms; and

WHEREAS; today the Sun City Security Patrol, which is sponsored by the Sun City Community Association, is a volunteer organization with over 230 active members. These Sun City residents volunteer their time to help reduce the occurrence of crime in their neighborhood. Because they have such a large contingency, they are able to patrol the streets of Sun City 24 hours a day, seven days per week acting as the "eyes and ears" of the community; and

WHEREAS; the Security Patrol staffs the three information booths located within Sun City. Their duties also include performing house checks for vacationing residents and observing and reporting potential crime or emergency conditions when present. The Security Patrol continuously checks the security of the Community Association property and other assets. They serve as a mobile extension of the Neighborhood Watch program and because of their presence on the streets, act as a deterrent to crime; now

THEREFORE; We, the Mayor and Members of the Las Vegas City Council, do hereby take great pride in proclaiming September 3, 2008 as:

Sun City Summerlin Security Patrol Day

In the City of Las Vegas and urge all citizens to join with us as we express our sincere gratitude to this group of volunteers for their dedication and service to the safety of the residents of Sun City.
