Minutes:

COUNCILMAN ROSS proudly announced that the recent Cowboy Christmas event at the Floyd Lamb-Tule Springs Park was a huge success, netting over 3,000 pounds of food for Jude 22 Senior Foodbank. He expressed his gratitude and remarked that the people of Las Vegas truly have big hearts.

MAYOR GOODMAN and COUNCILMEMBERS REESE, WOLFSON, ROSS and BARLOW expressed their appreciation and congratulations to COUNCILMAN BROWN, not only on his election to the County Commission, but for the many years of solid leadership with the City, including his tenure on the City Planning Commission.

Commended for being a great father figure, supportive of each member of his family, the accolades continued on to his extensive contributions to the City of Las Vegas, the immeasurable understanding of what goes on in the poorest sector of the City and his steadfast commitment to the citizens. Compliments continued with expressions of gratitude for being a mentor, for being a sounding board, for sharing a wealth of information and for the integrity for which he has gained recognition.

COUNCILMAN BROWN appreciated the comments of his colleagues and recalled memories of the past ten years, stating that it has been an honor to serve on the City Council and to be of service to the people. He described his tenure as a snapshot in time trusting that over the years, his contributions will not only impact future successors but also restore the public's faith in government.
