Minutes:

City Auditor Radford Snelding introduced Michael Mandolfo, who is a part-time employee. While working in the City Auditors Office, Mr. Mandolfo has completed his Bachelors Degree and is working on his Masters Degree. He has taken the time to become a certified fraud examiner and has been a success story.

Mr. Snelding explained for the Committee that a part-time employee does not receive benefits, which is a savings to the City. Mr. Mandolfo is the only part-time employee in their office at this time. Bruce Wagner, a previous part-time employee, may be able to return in the future as well should funding be available. This is a good way to leverage limited dollars, and Member Wolfson suggested taking this approach for projects like this.

AUDIT OVERSIGHT COMMITTEE MEETING OF: OCTOBER 15, 2009

Mr. Mandolfo read from the scripted PowerPoint, specifically Slides 16-21, to give his report on the audit of the Professional Services Contract with Whirlygig, Inc. Management is supportive of the recommendations and has provided an action plan to remedy the exceptions. A comprehensive Policy and Procedures is in process and is due to be completed by December 21, 2009.

Member Tarkanian believed the report addressed the members concerns that were previously expressed. Mr. Mandolfo informed the Committee that management has renewed a smaller contract, which will be reviewed as part of the follow up process.

Mr. Snelding stated that Nancy Deaner, Office of Government and Community Affairs, worked with staff on this contract. Ms. Deaner confirmed that the new contract is in full compliance and will expire in June 2010.
