JIM DiFIORE, Business Services Manager, noted that several inspections had been conducted at the location in the past six months with no resulting Code Violations and no areas of concern from the Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Department. He recommended approval of the permanent license subject to conditions which he read for the record.

HELEN ADAMS was present and agreed to all conditions.

COUNCILWOMAN LARKANIAN noted that the business had received no complaints during the review period and that some people did not care for psychic businesses.
