CITY COUNCIL MEETING OF: MAY 6, 2009

Minutes:

MAYOR GOODMAN declared the Public Hearing open.

DAN BALLARD, 8965 South Eastern Avenue, concurred with the conditions.

RECESS: 4:27-4:30 P.M.

COUNCILWOMAN TARKANIAN stated this business is greatly needed in the area, although many people are in objection because of the business name. NATHAN LUXENBURG, 4057 Delos Drive, the owner, explained that the store will deal in high-end, quality secondhand merchandise, such as furniture, plasma TV's, home decor items; no clothing will be sold. The Councilwoman asked MR. LUXENBURG to maintain the property in order to obtain the support of those neighbors in opposition.

COUNCILWOMAN TARKANIAN requested a condition restricting the signage and another condition regarding the landscaping. MARGO WHEELER, Director of Planning and Development crafted the two added conditions, to which MR. LUXENBURG agreed.

Regarding Item 66, CHRISTOL MEYER, Supervisor of Business Services, stated the applicant met the criteria for a approval of a temporary license. She recommended approval subject to all conditions.

See Item 1 for related background.

MAYOR GOODMAN declared the Public Hearing closed.
