PURPOSE/BACKGROUND:

The Regional Transportation Commission (RTC) is currently in the development process for a new transportation services center. The RTC will continue to operate out of the Downtown Transportation Center until the new center is ready for occupancy. The City and the RTC desire to modify the terms of the prior agreement in order to reduce the amount of the shared costs and reconcile past accounts.

Minutes:

LARRY HAUGSNESS, Director of Field Operations, stated this agreement will transfer operation and maintenance of the Downtown Transportation Center to the Regional Transportation Commission for one year. Also, the City will be terminating City Ride system that operates in the downtown area due to declining revenue and ridership and the significant expenses related to its operations.
