Submitted at Meeting Copy of Employee of the Year Certificate for Julie Quisenberry

Minutes:

MAYOR GOODMAN invited BILL ARENT, Acting Director of the Office of Business Development, and STEVE VAN GORP, Deputy Director of the Office of Business Development, to the podium to recognize JULIE QUISENBERRY as the Employee of the Year. MS. QUISENBERRY was instrumental in negotiating the incentive package which brought Buy-Low Supermarket to West Las Vegas after several years of going without a full service grocery store. She also developed the Retail Downtown Las Vegas Program which is designed to market the downtown area as the place to locate new retail shops and restaurants.

MR. ARENT stated that his department is very fortunate to have MS. QUISENBERRY who came from the private real estate industry. She brought expertise and knowledge to the position as well as tenacity and persistence. Her efforts have brought several retail businesses and Buy-Low Market to the City and MR. ARENT thanked MS. QUISENBERRY for the wonderful job she has done.

MS. QUISENBERRY thanked the Council and the City Managers Office for the recognition and she also thanked her management, the OBD Real Estate team and her family for their support.
