Minutes:

MAYOR GOODMAN declared the Public Hearing open.

CAROL MEYER, Business Services Supervisor, indicated that any information relative to the denial of the applicants work card during the appeal is open to the public. MAYOR GOODMAN confirmed that the business manager is aware of the applicants past record and is supportive of the applicant working at Buy Lo Market.

The applicant, GINA MOURNING appeared with the manager, ALFREDO ALVARADO. She recognized her past mistakes but asked for an opportunity to change and be a good citizen.

CITY COUNCIL MEETING OF: SEPTEMBER 16, 2009

MR. ALVARADO informed the Mayor that MS. MOURNING will be a cashier and is confident that she has matured. She has worked with him for the past four months, and he believes that individuals should be given a chance to change.

Given MS. MOURNINGS past mistakes, COUNCILMAN BARLOW emphasized to her that she should be grateful for her employer coming forward and hopes that she will be a positive example this time around. He wished her well in her endeavors.

MS. MEYER confirmed with COUNCILMAN BARLOW that, if approved, the work card would be site specific with a six-month review.
