CITY COUNCIL MEETING OF: OCTOBER 7, 2009

DEPARTMENT: OFFICE OF COMMUNICATIONS

DIRECTOR: DAVID RIGGLEMAN

SUBJECT:

RECOGNITION OF KCLV CHANNEL 2 AND THE CITY OF LAS VEGAS FIRST EMMY AWARD

Minutes:

No motion necessary. A presentation was made.

MAYOR GOODMAN called forward DAVID RIGGLEMAN, Communications Director, CHARLIE HOSMER-McGRAW, KCLV Station Manager, NANCY BYRNE, JESSE HARVEL and ERIC SORENSON to recognize KCLV Channel 2 for winning a Emmy Award for its 30-minute special "Las Vegas Gangs: Not Our Kids." This program features a ride-along with local law enforcement officers as they combat gang violence and also features interviews with former gang members. It also looks at the social, community and law enforcement problems that gangs causes, as well as investigates resources and programs that are being used to address these issues. The program was produced and hosted by MS. BYRNE, edited by SSRS. SORENSON and HARVEL videotaped and edited the program.

MR. RIGGLEMAN thanked the Council members for their support of KCLV Channel 2 throughout the years. He gave special thanks to COUNCILMAN ROSS, who came up with the idea for the program.

MR. RIGGLEMAN stated that winning the Emmy was a long time goal and a significant accomplishment for KCLV, as the team had to compete against the best in both the private and public sectors. Winning the Emmy also underscores that people in government do great work every day and that the City has very talented employees.

MS. BYRNE acknowledged the officers of Detention and Enforcement and Las Vegas Metropolitan Police (Metro) who assisted in this project.
