THE AMOUNT OF DISCUSSION ON ANY SINGLE SUBJECT, AS WELL AS THE AMOUNT OF TIME ANY SINGLE SPEAKER IS ALLOWED, MAY BE LIMITED

Minutes:

DOROTHY BAKER, Las Vegas resident, wished everyone a Happy New Year and stated that she was disappointed she was unable to get assistance from the VA clinic. She also mentioned that her name needs to come off the program. She expressed concern about the military in Afghanistan and this year she would like to see the war end. Everybody is suffering with the war crisis as it costs money to keep the soldiers there.

RASHAN JOSHUA COLLINS, Christian activist, stated that all nations shall worship before Christ. He wondered why the Mayor leaves when he speaks about God. He encouraged everyone to place God first above all.

TODD FARLOW, Las Vegas resident, referred to an article and thanked CITY MANAGER ELIZABETH FRETWELL and the City Council for taking a pro-active stance on the handling of the City's finances. He noted that what happened in California might not happen to Las Vegas because of the pro-active approach. He encouraged every department director to be pleasant to each City employee.

COUNCILMAN WOLFSON remarked on a meeting he had with one City employee, who is concerned about his job, but still feels good about the situation. The entire Council talks to the employees to hear what they have to say.

CHRISTINE LAURY expressed concern with the library and the use of the computer to access porno sites. She understands this is permitted under civil rights, but this matter should be looked into, as it is a violation of rights for those being exposed to this. COUNCILMAN REESE asked her to give her phone number to DEPUTY CITY MANAGER JIM NICHOLS, who will pass it on to MRS. REESE, who will contact her.

ANTHONY HODGES, Las Vegas resident, stated he donates his time to the public. He referred to a millionaire from Salt Lake City who built a cancer institute. He also addressed issues on his opinion who assassinated President Kennedy.
