COUNCILWOMAN TARKANIAN invited everyone to the next town hall meeting for Ward 1 residents on March 4th at 6:30 p.m. at the Charleston Heights Arts Center. Also, in honor of Women's History Month, the City is planning a special event on Saturday, March 13th from 9:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. at the West Las Vegas Arts Center. She mentioned that March is Brain Injury Awareness Month and there are clubs in high schools and colleges across the country that offer an opportunity for individuals to be a part of the mission to advance knowledge of the human brain and to identify and treat brain injuries. Anyone interested in starting his/her own club should visit the website, www.sjbclub.com to download a starter kit.

MAYOR GOODMAN commented that March 10th is the City's budget meeting. The City does have a balanced budget; however, it reduces services within the City and would require over 100 positions to be terminated. Although he realized some concessions have been made by some of the bargaining units, he urged everyone to share this message and to realize that there has to be a collective effort in an attempt to save many jobs.

The meeting was adjourned at 3:16 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,

Lean Coleman, Deputy City Clerk

Beverly K. Bridges, City Clerk
