

City of Las Vegas
Office of the City Council
Proclamation

Whereas; Elizabeth Keane, an eighth grade student at Tarkanian Middle School, has been selected by The Prudential Spirit of Community Awards as Nevada's top Middle Level youth volunteer and;

Whereas; the Prudential Spirit of Community Awards represent the United States' largest youth recognition program based solely on volunteer service; and

Whereas; Elizabeth was inspired by both her second-grade teacher and her love of teaching to start a school in her back yard where neighborhood children who are struggling academically can come for a few hours every Saturday for help with their studies; and

Whereas; she creates and executes lesson plans for the various levels of her students, and works with them individually to address particular academic needs, striving to make learning fun and interesting; and

Whereas; based on the number of volunteer hours Elizabeth has donated, she is also qualified to receive the President's Volunteer Service Award, which recognizes Americans of all ages who have volunteered significant amounts of their time to serve their communities and their country; now

Therefore; We, the Mayor and Members of the Las Vegas City Council, proudly proclaim April 7, 2010:

Elizabeth Keane Day

We urge all citizens of Las Vegas to join with us in celebrating Elizabeth Keane Day in our great city.
