COUNCILMAN BARLOW was pleased that CITY ATTORNEY JERBIC will stay on with the City. He has always been understanding, truthful and allows everyone to make their own decisions.

COUNCILWOMAN TARKANIAN concurred with her fellow Councilmembers and appreciates the City Attorney's help. He is always prompt on responding to her queries.

MAYOR GOODMAN remarked that in the past CITY ATTORNEY JERBIC voluntarily has taken a reduction in salary because of financial circumstances. All Councilmembers commended him on his job performance. However, given the economic downturn, a thank you is all that the Council can offer at this time. Hopefully, in the near future the Council will be able to compensate him accordingly.

CITY ATTORNEY JERBIC acknowledged and thanked ASSISTANT CITY ATTORNEY BEN LITTLE, Criminal Division, who runs the division with class and honesty and ASSISTANT CITY ATTORNEY BRYAN SCOTT, Civil Division, who takes on a heavy load every day and is respected by everyone in the City Attorney's Office. Having intellect and common sense move mountains.
