

City of Las Vegas
Office of the City Council
Proclamation

- Whereas;* We, the Mayor and Members of the Las Vegas City Council are honored to designate August 18, 2010 as The Las Vegas Hawks Day; and
- Whereas;* The Hawks are a non-profit youth baseball organization in Las Vegas; and
- Whereas;* The primary objective of the Hawks 'Club is the advancement of fundamental baseball skills in an environment that fosters good citizenship, character, community goodwill, and competitive athletics; and
- Whereas;* As an organization, they attempt to provide financial assistance to players that may not be able to afford the actual cost of playing competitive club baseball. Extra fundraising and donations provide assistance to ensure that the organization's belief that economic status should not be the major factor as to whether a player is able to play a sport; and
- Whereas;* The Hawks are entering into their seventh year and has developed 5 competitive teams from the ages of 8 through 13, which equates to approximately 70 youth players and families throughout the Las Vegas Valley; and
- Whereas;* The Hawks organization also spend time giving back to the community. Each year the Hawks partner up with the Police Athletic League (PAL) and other local organizations to provide baseball clinics for their younger members. The Hawks feel this differentiates them from other organizations as they strive to teach their players the importance of being a community servant which will in turn, will breed productive citizens; and
- Therefore;* In recognition of the Las Vegas Hawks Baseball Club and their exceptional 2009-2010 season and beliefs and inclusion of all players regardless of status, we the Mayor and Members of the Las Vegas City Council urge all citizens to join with us as we hereby take great pride in proclaiming
