CITY COUNCIL MEETING OF: MARCH 16, 2011

DEPARTMENT: OFFICE OF COMMUNICATIONS

DIRECTOR: DAVID RIGGLEMAN

SUBJECT:

RECOGNITION OF DISC JOCKEY D.C. RIDER

Minutes:

COUNCILMAN BARLOW invited D.C. RIDER, a disc jockey, to the podium and detailed MR. RIDER'S service to the music and radio broadcasting industry. MR. RIDER was known as the "Groove maker" and after relocating to Las Vegas, NV, he became the house disc jockey for the previous hotel and casino, Moulin Rouge. He began his long-standing career with the local radio station, KCEP FM 88.1, in 1978, and is now operating a mobile disc jockey business. MR. RIDER is a respected businessman and entertainer in the Las Vegas community. On behalf of the Council, COUNCILMAN BARLOW presented MR. RIDER with a proclamation, recognizing this day as D.C. Rider Day in the city of Las Vegas, and thanked him for his contributions in broadcasting and communications.

MR. RIDER invited everyone to his upcoming 70th birthday party which will be held at Seven Seas Restaurant. He was proud to be honored and thanked everyone for it, as he looked forward to his daughter continuing the legacy.
