Proclamation

United Way of Southern Nevada

- WHEREAS:* United Way of Southern Nevada has attracted people with the desire to make our community a better place. Today, individuals and companies alike share their energy and resources so that our children, families, seniors, and others in need can receive assistance and lead fulfilling, productive lives; and
- WHEREAS:* United Way has laid the groundwork for its community-based agenda and created opportunities for people to attain the building blocks needed for a good life: a quality education that leads to a stable job, income that can support a family through retirement, and good health; and
- WHEREAS:* United Way is facilitating real change in community conditions while ensuring that basic needs are met in southern Nevada by collaborating with long-standing, community-based organizations and non-traditional partners. Now more than ever, they are dedicated to delivering real results; and
- WHEREAS:* United Way goes beyond quick fixes by actively working with community partners to change community conditions and improve lives with generous contributions and countless volunteer hours. Together, they are achieving the kind of positive outcomes that no one can accomplish alone; and
- THEREFORE:* We, the Mayor and City Council of the City of Las Vegas, in honor of the United Way of Southern Nevada, proudly proclaim April 20, 2011, as

“United Way of Southern Nevada Day”
