BACKUP DOCUMENTATION:

Submitted at Meeting: Letter and Copy of Article by Susan Wade

Minutes:

DEBORAH ANTHONY stated she has been keeping up with her artwork and complimented the Mayor on his efforts.

RASHAN JOSHUA COLLINS referred to the Nevada Revised Statutes and expressed comments on the importance of protecting the health, welfare and morals of minors and did not want to see these issues ignored by Council. He believed the Council is in a world of immorality.

SUSAN WADE submitted a letter with an attached article and complained about the offensive conduct of security guards toward the elderly on the buses. MAYOR GOODMAN stated the appropriate forum would be the Regional Transportation Commission. MS. WADE noted that Allied Security Personnel are very offensive and asked that something be done to lower the age requirements for senior housing. MAYOR GOODMAN suggested she contact MARIA CASTILLO-COUCH for any issues relative to the City.

TODD FARLOW commented on Item 18 from today's agenda and indicated there is an organization that picks up cats and has them neutered or spayed. He confirmed with ASSISTANT CITY ATTORNEY BRYAN SCOTT and the Mayor that he could trap cats to have them neutered/spayed and then release them.

ASSISTANT CITY ATTORNEY BRYAN SCOTT thanked ERICA WIBORG, UNLV intern in her third year at Boyd Law School, for her assistance and wished her luck.
