

PROCLAMATION

- WHEREAS; Helldorado Days began as a tool in 1935 to bring tourists to town following the completion of the Hoover Dam , over the years it evolved into a celebration that united locals with community spirit and raised money for local charities; and
- WHEREAS; in 2005, after a seven year absence, the Helldorado days tradition was brought back in celebration of the City's Centennial, and in 2009 the rodeo returned to downtown; and
- WHEREAS; the Las Vegas Elks have worked tirelessly to make this annual event a great success, in addition to providing much needed funding for needy children and veterans. Every year hundreds of volunteers donate hours of their time to help make Helldorado a great success; and
- WHEREAS; this year, Helldorado Days will take place May 12 – 15. Events include a rodeo in the heart of downtown Las Vegas hosted by the Professional Rodeo Cowboys Association May 13 – 15, and the Helldorado Parade on May 14, followed by a fireworks show; and
- THEREFORE: we, the Mayor and City Council of the City of Las Vegas, proudly proclaim May 12-15, 2011 as in the City of Las Vegas and ask our citizens to join us in the tribute to the Western roots of the city of Las Vegas.

“Helldorado Day’s”

Mayor Oscar B. Goodman

Mayor Pro Tem Gary Reese

Councilman Steve Wolfson

Councilwoman Lois Tarkanian

Councilman Steven D. Ross

Councilman Ricki Y. Barlow

Councilman Stavros S. Anthony