Minutes:

MAYOR GOODMAN invited ROB STOLDAL, Chairman of the Historic Preservation Commission (HPC), to the podium to help recognize Historic Preservation Month. He complimented the HPC for all the work they do in order to make sure the City's history is not forgotten.

ANDY KIRK, Director of Preserve Nevada, was invited to the podium in recognition of the group's advocacy and assistance with stabilizing funding in the State budget for the Historic Preservation Office.

MARK HALL-PATTON, Director of the Clark County Museum, received an award for making sure the Candlelight Wedding Chapel was preserved and relocated to the Clark County Museum Heritage Street. MR. HALL-PATTON thanked the Council for the recognition and the Centennial Commission for helping with the project.

LARRY HAUGSNESS, Director of Operations and Maintenance, and TIM SHACKELFORD, Facilities Maintenance Supervisor, were invited to the podium in recognition of the rehabilitation of Floyd Lamb Park at Tule Springs of its equestrian and livestock areas. MR. HAUGSNESS thanked the Mayor and acknowledged STEVE FORD, Deputy Director of Operations and Maintenance, and lead carpenter LIONEL TANGUAY, Operations and Maintenance Department, for their efforts.

MR. STOLDAL stated that sites such as the Fifth Street School, the Mob Museum and Tule Springs are treasures within the community that also provide jobs. He thanked the Mayor and Council for all their help. MAYOR GOODMAN then presented MR. STOLDAL with a proclamation.
