Minutes:

PASTOR LARRY MANGLES, Las Vegas resident, lives in a senior complex where many residents anticipate spending their last years in peace. The recent Helldorado Days Rodeo produced so much noise that it created a nuisance for seniors who lived some distance away. His attempts to resolve the matter the following day were dismissed and he was treated rudely. He plans on picketing next year if the issue is not resolved and wants to know if something can be done. MAYOR GOODMAN informed PASTOR MANGLES that staff would be happy to speak with him.

DOROTHY BARNES, Las Vegas resident, once again asked that her name be removed from programs.

TODD FARLOW, Las Vegas resident, commended the Boys Scouts and referred to articles in both City Life and Nation magazines that address various issues and provide commentary on colleges and universities. Articles were submitted for the record.
