Minutes:

COUNCILMAN ANTHONY announced Saturday, October 22, 2011, as "National Make a Difference Day" and recognized the following organizations and individuals for being active participants and givers within the community: MATT HIRSCH, Senior Director of Community Development at United Way of Southern Nevada; ROBIN KELLY, Volunteer Center Director at United Way of Southern Nevada; STEVE CHARTRAND, President and CEO of Goodwill of Southern Nevada; MONSIGNOR PATRICK R. LEARY, CEO of Catholic Charities of Southern Nevada; BRIAN BURTON, President and CEO of Thriftway; CAPTAIN BRUCE JAMISON, Salvation Army North Las Vegas Corps Office. The Councilman discussed the services these organizations provide to the community and presented them with a proclamation.

MR. CHARTRAND stated that this day was an effort to bring together the five major charities and recognized Albertsons/Say-On as the co-sponsor and sponsor of this event and thanked them for allowing all of their Valley stores to display a donations center.

MAYOR GOODMAN announced that she will be at the Albertsons on Flamingo and Durango as a show of support.

EDIE WHITLEY, Albertson's representative, presented all of the Councilmembers with commemorative shirts.
