TO: CLV Planning Commissioners TROWBRIDGE, TRUESDELL, GOYNES,
EVANS, QUINN, ELLSWORTH, and BUCKLEY
FROM: CNP

We understand that all LV Planning Commission actions may set a precedent for any and all actions within our City of Las Vegas, Nevada boundaries, therefore imposing a direct impact upon all wards.

RE: #33. [REDACTED] We support the Special Use Permit for this purpose for this site.

RE: #39: DIR-33776-We support the designation of the MESQUITE CLUB clubhouse built in 1954, as an Historic Property on the city of Las Vegas Historic Property Register. Maintaining the prime function for the livability of an area requires respect for and therefore the preservation of historic sites/buildings. We, as you, know that the non-profit Mesquite Club consisting of over 200 members out-reaching among the neighborhoods, is a landmark of the past and to the future. They provide numerous services and assistances from this clubhouse such as Ronald McDonald House, YMCA youth supplies, Safe House, Goody Two Shoes, rose garden and others. Their maintenance of a standard of quality throughout the years, the Mesquite Club organization beginning in the year 1911, in an honest, respectful and benevolent manner establishes an example for all organizations and governments.

We note the Historic Preservation Commission has approved this action.

We request that a firm protection from a Gaming Overlay, be included with the action(s) taken on this item in following the honest, respectful and benevolent business practices which this group, housed in this clubhouse, exemplifies.

Sincerely,

June Ingram—President and BOARD
