In order to foster the rebirth of Downtown, you must improve the real estate around it as well as the passageway to it. The stretch from Convention Center Drive to the area around Graces looks deplorable. If I were a tourist, I wouldn't make the trek through that corridor. That being said, no tattoo parlor, liquor store, or strip joint will do anything to enhance the corridor's appearance, nor will they draw a crowd that the surrounding residents will appreciate.

Please, please focus on real improvements along the LV Blvd corridor which will be both inviting to the tourists as well as purposeful to the surrounding residents.

Thank you for your consideration.
