FLINN FAGG, Director of Planning, explained that due to recent changes with State law, this is a new item on the agenda that will give the public an opportunity to comment on items prior to action being taken.

CHAIR EVANS commented that this meeting would be his last meeting as a member of the Planning Commission.

On behalf of the historic neighborhoods, JACK LEVINE told CHAIR EVANS that he will be sorely missed. He appreciated his time and dedication given to the older communities.

MICHAEL McDONALD complimented the Planning Commission (Commission) as a great board; it was the cornerstone of his own career in fighting for neighborhoods. He thanked CHAIR EVANS for taking the time to be involved and knowing what residents desire. MR. McDONALD is not in favor of term limits, as these Commissioners put their heart and soul into their work. This Commission will lose a great leader, and he hopes that CHAIR EVANS' successor will continue the mission on preserving neighborhoods and making a difference.

CHAIR EVANS introduced his mother, CAROLYN EVANS, who has always been his inspiration. His sister, SIENNA, was also present. MRS. EVANS was honored to be present and expressed pride for her son. She recalled a story that is a testament to CHAIR EVANS' dedication in seeking knowledge prior to making important decisions.
