Minutes:

JAN PORTER, Peccole Ranch Community Association, expressed excitement for the aforementioned initiatives and is eager to begin working with City staff on a five-year plan for their community. Previous efforts were made to have a communications tower in their community on a portion of vacant land, and their community believes that if done, it will be an excellent revenue source for a walkable community plan.

COUNCILMAN WOLFSON thanked MS. PORTER for attending the meeting and her comments. The Councilman pointed out that Peccole Ranch is a well suited community with existing elements for a walkable community plan.

DICK GEYER, President, 18b Las Vegas Arts District Neighborhood Association, has worked with the City for over 12 years in assisting individuals who want businesses in Las Vegas. He thanked members of the City Council for their efforts and looks forward to meeting with DEPUTY CITY MANAGER JIM NICHOLS. Given the recent changes in the fee structure, he hopes that these proposed changes to ease the licensing process will help to minimize costs involved for small business owners, particularly those located within the Arts District.
