PURPOSE/BACKGROUND:

The City Council last met to discuss strategic priorities on March 3, 2010 and adopted six priorities. The purpose of this meeting is for City Council to identify and define their priorities with input from staff and citizens. Council will receive a report on six priorities that city employees have identified as well as a report on the results of the 2011 citizen survey. Council members and staff will also participate in small group discussions. In addition to the discussion on priorities, a communication exercise will be conducted so Council members and staff have an opportunity to better understand and discuss their personal styles and preferences.

RECOMMENDATION:

Approve any new or modified priorities and direct staff accordingly

BACKUP DOCUMENTATION:

None
