DEPARTMENT: OFFICE OF COMMUNICATIONS
DIRECTOR: DAVID RIGGLEMAN

SUBJECT:
RECOGNITION OF NEVADA CHILD SEEKERS

BACKUP DOCUMENTATION:

Submitted after meeting Proclamation for Nevada Child Seekers Day

Minutes:

No motion required. A presentation was made.

MS. PARKER thanked the Council, especially the Mayor for being on the Honorary Board of Trustees. The City has been a strong, long-time supporter of Nevada Child Seekers. She then recognized the members of the Board of Directors in the audience, as well as Doris Reed Elementary School student, ELIZABETH DICKERMAN, an Amber Alert poster winner, who came forward and received a plaque. Her poster will be sent to Washington, D.C., for the national competition.

COUNCILMAN BROWN called forward STEPHANIE PARKER, Executive Director of Nevada Child Seekers, to assist in recognizing Nevada Child Seekers. He read and presented the Proclamation declaring May 2, 2007, to be Nevada Child Seekers Day in the City of Las Vegas.

Additionally, MS. PARKER recognized many of the people who assist Nevada Child Seekers in fulfilling its mission; JERRY BROWNER, the first Nevada Child Seekers Intern, and members of the Nevada Amber Alert Committee, the Office of the U.S. Marshal, the Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Department, the Las Vegas Regional Internet Crimes Against Children Taskforce, as well as volunteers of the Emergency Volunteer Searchforce. After receiving a Certificate of Appreciation, they thanked MS. PARKER for giving them the opportunity to assist in the crucial mission of protecting children and for her leadership. Lastly, COUNCILMAN REESE gave MS. PARKER a Certificate of Appreciation.
