Minutes:

No motion required. A presentation was made.

In recognition of Salvation Army Week, MAYOR GOODMAN called forward CHARLES DESIDERIO and MAJOR HARRYETTE RAIHL from the local chapter of the Salvation Army. The Mayor noted that the Salvation Army is an invaluable resource to individuals and families in need. It is expected that in 2007 the Salvation Army will contribute approximately $18 million in program services to the residents of Southern Nevada. He presented a Proclamation declaring May 14-20, 2007, to be The Salvation Army Week.

MAJOR RAIHL thanked the Council and said that the Salvation Army considers it a privilege to serve the Lord and to partner with the City to serve the Las Vegas community. MR. DESIDERIO also thanked the Council, as well as the community and the many friends of the Salvation Army who always come through during fundraisers.

MAYOR GOODMAN noted that the City could not be what it is without the help of so many charitable institutions, and the Salvation Army makes a tremendous contribution to make Las Vegas a better place to live.
