DIRECTOR: DAVID RIGGLEMAN

SUBJECT:

RECOGNITION OF THE CIMARRON MEMORIAL HIGH SCHOOL ROBOTICS TEAM FOR WINNING THE FIRST ROBOTICS NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP

Minutes:

No motion required. A presentation was made.

COUNCILMAN BROWN recognized the Cimarron Memorial High School Robotics Team, the "High Rollers," for winning the FIRST Robotics National Championship in Atlanta with their robot, "Pit Boss," which was displayed in the Council Chambers. The students then came forward as their names were called. NATALIA SUBERANAS, team member, indicated that the robot was put together through a NASA program. The team had six weeks to build the robot. One of the teachers mentioned that the competition started with 1,700 teams and it was narrowed down by process of elimination. He thanked the families, sponsors and Cimarron High School for all their support.
