PURPOSE/BACKGROUND:

For possible action to approve grant funding for the first phase of the reconstruction and rehabilitation of the "Old Adobe" at Floyd Lamb Park at Tule Springs. The adobe, constructed c. 1910, has suffered deterioration of the roof and collapsed walls, leaving the building open to the elements and vermin. The city of Las Vegas Historic Preservation Commission has identified this building as a priority based on its condition and the desire to allow public access to the building for interpretation. The project is supported by the Floyd Lamb Park Master Plan recommendation to restore and rehabilitate historic buildings within the park.
