ANALYSIS

The City of Las Vegas has received an approval on the change of scope for the 2015 HPF grant to include research and development of a mobile app that is capable of displaying the city's historic and cultural resources such as historic trails, cultural and public art sites. The Commission would also like the app to have the ability to be expanded in the future with audio capabilities and regional sites.

Next steps:

- The HPF 2015 funding agreement is scheduled for the October 21, 2015 City Council meeting.
- Schedule a meeting with Commissioner Cosgrove and Information Technologies (IT) staff to develop an outline for the app.
- The city of Las Vegas will solicit proposals from interested parties to research and compile content, and coordinate with the app developer and staff.
- The city of Las Vegas will solicit proposals from mobile app developers if necessary.
