CHAIR CHERRY confirmed for NATHAN TAYLOR that Item 9 was a Public Hearing but had a request for an abeyance. MR. TAYLOR stated that he would reserve his comments.

ERIN McMULLEN appeared on behalf of Boyd Gaming and stated that she was alerted by COUNCILMAN COFFIN of the three short-term rental related items on the agenda. She has not had time to digest the information but was willing to work with those involved.

JUSTIN MICHAELS wondered if an abeyance could be considered on Item 8 as he had not received advanced notification of the item being heard. CHAIR CHERRY replied that a previous discussion had taken place and that the item had been held in abeyance from that meeting to the present.

CHAIR CHERRY informed JEFF BELCHER that comments could be made at the time an item is heard.
