CHAIR CHERRY declared the Public Hearing open.

PLANNING COMMISSION MEETING OF: DECEMBER 11, 2018

ERIC McCAMMOND, Sr. Management Analyst, reported that the applicant is operating a short-term residential rental use that meets all minimum Special Use Permit requirements of Title 19.12 that were applicable at the time of application. At the time of application, the Special Use Permit was required as a result of Ordinance 6585, which required all existing Short-Term Residential Rental uses not eligible for Conditional Use approval to be approved via the Special Use Permit process prior to July 1, 2019. With the recent adoption of Bill Number 2018-58 amending the Unified Development Code, relief from Conditional Use Regulations by means of a future Special Use Permit no longer exists. Whether approved or denied, the existing use would remain authorized and be subject to non-conforming use provisions of Las Vegas Municipal Code Title 19. Staff is recommending approval. MR. McCAMMOND noted that additional letters of protest were submitted since publication.

MARY MCELHONIE, Deputy Planning Director, further reported that this has been a licensed short-term rental since June 14, 2017. There has been no Code Enforcement action on the property and there have been no issues or concerns.

SURESH GANDHI, applicant, stated that this rental property has been well maintained and there have been no issues or complaints; therefore, they request approval.

Given that everything seems to be running smoothly, COMMISSIONER TOUSSAINT recommended approval with a one-year administrative review, which MR. GANDHI agreed to. STEVE CEBEKE, Planning Supervisor, read the condition for the record.

CHAIR CHERRY declared the public hearing closed.
