3:45 p.m. – Edgar's Birthday Buddies - Edgar's Birthday Buddies

Edgar's birthday buddies delivers birthday presents to kids experiencing foster care. Each item specifically picked based off the child's interests and favorite things. Edgar decided to do this project because he was a former foster youth himself and knows how celebrating without family can feel lonely. He wants to make sure they feel special. Local foster care groups are helping get kids' birthday information and wish lists!

3:45 p.m. – STARS COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION - FAMILY FUN HEALTH FAIR

The Family Fun Health Fair was created by our youth leaders that have been worried about their families' health during this COVID-19 season. We wanted to do something to help families have a day with NO STRESS ABOUT COVID-19. We want to involve the Community, Business Partners, and Healthcare Workers to come together and have a day of health to be sure that they know how to stay safe and free from COVID-19.

4:00 p.m. – BlackQueen Productions – Citywide Birthday

We want to host a citywide birthday party. We want to acknowledge the celebration and fun that goes into parties and making sure that children that do not have that chance get an opportunity to enjoy their day regardless of money or resources in the household. We thought of this project because we have fun on our birthdays and want to spread that joy with others. Neighborhood residents will have time before the party to meet other children and create original dances, skits, invitations, and help with party details.

4:00 p.m. – VVAA – Homeless Care Packages

This project will be putting care packages together for the homeless in our community. These packages will consist of personal hygiene supplies, hand sanitizer, a mask, socks, snacks and a blanket. This project was selected because of the number of homeless people we have in our community along with concerns about the COVID pandemic and changing weather. This is one way we can assist someone who is less fortunate to be safer and warmer during cool nights. This project will allow youth to show concern for others and not always think about themselves.
