Except as otherwise provided in Paragraph 3, if one or more individual members of the City Council wish to bring forward an ordinance proposal, they must first provide an email to the City Manager and City Attorney notifying them of the desire to do so, including the subject and a brief explanation of the proposal. Thereafter, the following conditions precedent must be met before the City Manager will direct the City Attorney to include the ordinance proposal on the agenda for a regular or special City Council meeting for introduction, subsequent public hearing(s), or possible adoption:

--The ordinance proposal must be reviewed with comments by the City Manager; this review must include any operational impacts to the City.

--The ordinance proposal must be reviewed by the Chief Financial Officer; this review must include any financial impacts to the City.

--The ordinance proposal must be reviewed by the City Attorney; this review must include any legal impacts to the City.

--The City Manager, Chief Financial Officer, and City Attorney must present their reviews to Council members at briefings. At the same briefings described in the preceding sentence, the City Manager may present a recommendation or non-recommendation of the ordinance proposal as authorized by Las Vegas City Charter Section 3.030(3).

2. After the conditions precedent described in Paragraph 1 are met, the normal steps identified in Section B of this Procedure will apply. Nothing in this Section C shall prohibit the prior completion of steps in Section B that may be required for the reviews and presentation described in Paragraph 1 of this Section C.

3. This Policy does not apply to proposals other than ordinance proposals and does not apply to any ordinance proposal that is:

--Proposed, sought or brought forward by individual City departments or the City Manager's Office, even if a member of the City Council agrees to sponsor the measure.

--Brought forward in order to conform to or comply with State or Federal legislation.
