City of Las Vegas
Call for Committee
For Ballot Question No. 1

In accordance with Nevada Revised Statute 295.217, the Las Vegas City Council is seeking to appoint a Ballot Question Committee.

This Committee will be composed of six persons, three of whom are known to favor approval and three of whom are known to oppose approval of the City's ballot question which will be considered by City of Las Vegas' voters at the General Election on November 7, 2000. This Committee will be responsible for writing the arguments for and against and rebuttals for and against for the following ballot question:

FIRE PROTECTION TAX QUESTION:

Shall the City of Las Vegas be authorized to levy an additional property tax for fire protection of up to $0.095 per $100 of assessed valuation for a period of 30 years? At least twenty percent (20%) of the amount levied will be used for the acquisition, construction and improvement of fire and emergency equipment and facilities with the remaining amount used for operating and maintaining fire and emergency equipment and facilities and for hiring, training and equipping of firefighter/paramedics and support staff. The cost for the owner of a new $100,000 home is estimated to be up to $33.25 per year.

Anyone wishing to serve on this important Committee, please contact the Las Vegas City Clerk. The information packet, including the application form, is available at the City Clerk's Office, Las Vegas City Hall, First Floor, 400 Stewart, Las Vegas, Nevada 89101. Interested persons may also call the Clerk's Office at 229-6311, fax your request to the Clerk at 382-4803 or from the City of Las Vegas website at www.ci.las-vegas.nv.us. Completed Applications will be accepted on or before June 2, 2000.

Barbara Jo Ronemus, City Clerk
