The Board of Commissioners of the City of Las Vegas do ordain as follows:

SECTION 1. It shall be unlawful for any person, either by telephone or by door-to-door solicitation, to attempt to sell or otherwise dispose of coupon books containing coupons which are exchangeable, in whole or in part, for services, tickets, admissions, goods, wares, or merchandise, without being licensed so to do. A license shall be granted only upon application, stating the name and business address of the person applying therefor, the name, address and social security number of every person employed by the applicant in this City who attempts to sell or otherwise dispose of coupon books, the name and address of the bonding company furnishing the bond required by Section No. 4 of this ordinance, and such other information as the Supervisor of Licenses and Revenue may require to enable him to properly enforce the provisions of this ordinance.

SECTION 2. The applicant shall pay in advance a fee of $15.00 for himself and a like amount for each person to be employed by him to cover the cost of investigation of the facts contained in his application. Upon receipt of such application the original shall be referred to the Chief of Police, who shall cause such investigation of the applicant's business and moral character to be made as he deems necessary for the protection of the public good. If, as a result of such investigation, the applicant's character or business responsibility is found to be unsatisfactory, the Chief of Police shall endorse on such application his disapproval and his reasons for the same, and return the application to the Supervisor of Licenses and Revenue, who shall notify the applicant that his application is disapproved and that no permit and/or license will be issued. If, as a result of such investigation, the character and business responsibility of the applicant is found to be satisfactory, the Chief of Police shall endorse on the application his approval, and return such application with his approval thereon to the Supervisor of Licenses and Revenue who shall, upon the payment of license fees hereinafter provided, deliver to the applicant his permit and/or license.

SECTION 3. Before any license is issued, and upon approval of the application by the Chief of Police as provided in Section 2, the applicant shall pay in advance a license fee of $20.00 for six months for himself, and $20.00 for six months for each person employed by him in attempting to sell or otherwise dispose of coupon books; provided, a license fee shall not be required for any person employed to replace a person for whom a license fee has been paid. If the application for a license is refused, a refund of license fees paid shall be made to the applicant, provided, however, that no investigation fees shall be refunded to any applicant. Failure of the applicant to furnish complete information as required by the Supervisor of Licenses and Revenue shall be sufficient reason for denying the application for a license. Before a license is issued, satisfactory evidence shall be presented to the Supervisor of Licenses & Revenue that a bond, as provided by Section No. 4 of this ordinance, is in force to cover the applicant and every person employed by him. If a person employed by the applicant is replaced by another person, the applicant shall immediately furnish the Supervisor of Licenses and Revenue with the investigation fee and, upon approval, shall be issued a license for the unexpired term of any other employee who may be covered by a license. The Board of Commissioners shall, on reasonable notice and after a hearing, revoke the license of any person violating the provisions of this ordinance.

SECTION 4. The Board of Commissioners shall require a corporate surety bond in the sum of $5000.00 to be posted by every person, partnership or corporation principally responsible for promoting the sale or other disposition of coupon books in the City of Las Vegas. Such bond shall run to the City of Las Vegas and to any person injured by reason of any misrepresentation, failure to perform, or fraudulent act, permitted on the part of any person attempting to sell or otherwise dispose of coupon books on behalf of the licensee.

SECTION 5. Any person violating the provisions of this ordinance shall, upon conviction thereof, be fined not more than $500.00 or imprisoned for not more than six months, or both fined and imprisoned at the discretion of the Court.

SECTION 6. If any provision of this ordinance, or the application thereof, to any person or circumstances, is held invalid, the remainder of this ordinance or the application of such provisions to any other person or circumstance, shall not be affected. If any word, clause, sentence, paragraph or section of this ordinance shall be declared invalid by any court of competent jurisdiction, the remainder of the ordinance shall not be affected thereby and the Board of Commissioners hereby declares that it would have passed the remaining parts of this ordinance if it had known that part or parts would be declared invalid.

SECTION 7. All ordinances or parts of ordinances in conflict herewith are hereby repealed.

SECTION 8. This ordinance shall be published in full once a week for two successive weeks in the Las Vegas Review Journal, a daily newspaper published in the City of Las Vegas, and shall become effective immediately upon the second publication thereof.
