My Commission Expires Mar. 17, 1960

An applicant not previously licensed shall pay with the application the license fee set forth hereinabove for the appropriate type applied for, covering a one year period. After a licensee shall have held a license for one year, said license fee may be paid quarterly in advance therefor.

SECTION 3. Section 16, is hereby added to read as follows:

Hereafter the issuance of importers licenses shall be issued in proportion to the number of retailers licenses issued and shall be issued on the basis of one importers license for each twenty-five (25) retail licenses. In the event the importers licenses presently existing shall be greater proportionately than would result by application of the formula herein set forth, no importers license shall be cancelled by reason thereof. However, no more licenses shall be issued then until the foregoing proportionate number shall have been reached.

SECTION 4. Tavern licenses shall be limited to one for each 1250 population, except that hotels of one hundred (100) room or more or major gambling establishments shall not be included within the limitation for the purpose of initial issuance of license, but shall thereafter be included in the totals.

A major gambling establishment is defined as one having ten (10) or more gambling devices exclusive of slot machines.

SECTION 5. After the effective date of this ordinance a package liquor store license shall not permit the sale of draft beer in such licensed establishments, except that this section shall not apply to those package liquor stores selling draft beer prior to the effective date of this ordinance.

SECTION 6. Any ordinance or part of ordinance in conflict herewith is hereby repealed.

SECTION 7. The City Clerk and Clerk of the Board of Commissioners of the City of Las Vegas shall cause this ordinance to be published once a week for two successive weeks immediately following its first reading and adoption in the Las Vegas Sun, a daily newspaper published in the City of Las Vegas.
