Ordinance No. 3

An Ordinance Providing for the Licensing of Saloons, Barrooms and Places Where Intoxicating Liquors are Sold.

The Board of Commissioners of the City of Las Vegas do ordain:

Each and every saloon, bar room, or place where malt, spiritous, vinous or intoxicating liquors are sold or dispensed, in quantities less than five gallons, shall before engaging in such business pay to the City Treasurer of Las Vegas a license of thirty dollars for each and every period of three months or portion thereof, which such business is conducted. Such license shall be due and payable and paid on the first days of January, April, July and October of each year, for the period of three months or quarter year immediately following, and such license shall expire on the last days of March, June, September and December, respectively, immediately following its date of issuance. No license shall be issued or granted for a less period of time than the quarter wherein such license is paid. And any person who shall engage in any such business or who shall sell or give away any such malt, spiritous, vinous, or intoxicating liquors without first having procured the issuance to him, her or them the license above mentioned, shall be fined in any sum not more than three hundred dollars as the judge of the Municipal Court of the City of Las Vegas may adjudge, and be imprisoned in the City Jail of said City until such fine is paid, computing one day's imprisonment as equivalent to the payment of $2.00 of such fine.

The foregoing ordinance was read in full to the Board. After due consideration by the Board it was, upon motion of Commissioner Coughlin, seconded by Commissioner McGovern and duly carried ordered that the foregoing ordinance be adopted as read and the clerk instructed to have the same published as by law provided, the vote being cast as follows:
