Chas. Clonkhill, being first duly sworn, deposes and says: That he is a citizen of the United States, over the age of eighteen years; that he is the publisher of the Clark County Review, a weekly newspaper of general circulation printed and published at Las Vegas, Clark County, Nevada, and that the

Ordinance No. 7, of the City of Las Vegas

Ordinance No. 7

An Ordinance For the Prevention of Nuisances.

The Board of Commissioners of the City of Las Vegas do ordain:

Sec. 1. It shall be unlawful for any person or persons to maintain a nuisance within the limits of said City.

A nuisance within the meaning of this ordinance is hereby defined as follows, to-wit:

A. Any manure pile, offal, hog-pen, carcass, or dead animal remaining unremoved beyond the limits of said City for more than twelve hours after the death of such animal, any decayed meat, fruit or vegetables.

B. Any cess-pool, privy, water-closet, or any other receptacle whatsoever for human excrement, which is in an overflowing, foul or filthy condition, or any foul or filthy drain or sewer pipe.

C. Every act or thing done, or every condition created permitted or allowed, on any property that is detrimental to the public health, safety, morals or convenience.

Sec. 2. Any person whether owner or occupant, or the agent of any owner or occupant, and any corporation, or officer, agent or servant of such corporation, that shall create, maintain, allow or permit upon any property, any nuisance enumerated in subsections A. B. and C. of Section 1 of this ordinance, shall be punished by a fine not exceeding three hundred dollars ($300.00), or by imprisonment not exceeding one hundred and fifty days, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

Sec. 3. It is hereby made the duty of the Chief of Police of said City of Las Vegas to notify in writing any person whether owner, occupant or agent of any such owner or occupant, and the agents, servants, and officers of any corporation which may be the owners, or occupants of such property, forthwith to abate such nuisance within fortyeight hours after being served with such notice, and in event of a failure so to do, such party so served with such notice becomes and is guilty of a violation of this ordinance and shall be fined in any sum not exceeding three hundred dollars ($300.00) or imprisoned for any term not exceeding one hundred and fifty days, or by both such fine and imprisonment. Each day that any such nuisance is permitted, suffered, or maintained after notice to abate the same as provided in this ordinance shall and does constitute an additional offence provided that the Chief of Police may proceed to abate such nuisance at any time after the expiration of the period of notice above provided for, and the cost of such abatement shall be a charge against the person owning or occupying the premises where such nuisance is maintained to be recovered by action brought therefore in any Court of competent jurisdiction.

The foregoing ordinance was read in full to the Board. After due consideration by the Board it was, upon motion of Commissioner McGovern, seconded by Commissioner Stewart and duly carried ordered that the foregoing ordinance be adopted as read and the clerk instructed to have the same published as by law provided, the vote being cast as follows:
