

Affidavit of Publication

Chas. C. Corkhill, being first duly sworn; deposes and says: That he is a citizen of the United States, over the age of eighteen years; that he is the publisher of the Clark County Review, a weekly newspaper of general circulation printed and published at Las Vegas, Clark County, Nevada, and that the

Ordinance No. 29 of the City of Las Vegas, Nevada,

ORDINANCE NO. 29

An Ordinance to Prevent Minors from Frequenting Saloons and Disreputable Places.

THE BOARD OF COMMISSIONERS OF THE CITY OF LAS VEGAS DO ORDAIN AS FOLLOWS:

Sec. 1. It shall be unlawful for any minor to frequent or loiter around any saloon, gambling house, bar-room, billiard room or pool room, cigar store, bowling alley or house of ill-fame or to purchase any beer, wine, spiritous liquors or other intoxicating beverage from any such place, and any minor violating the provisions of this section shall be punished by a fine of not less than Five Dollars ($5.00) nor more than Twenty-five Dollars ($25.00), or imprisonment in the city jail until such fine is paid, not exceeding one day for each two dollars of such fine in case such fine is not paid.

Sec. 2. It shall be unlawful for any saloon-keeper to sell or permit to be sold to minors any beer, wine, spiritous liquors or other intoxicating beverage, or to permit minors to frequent or loiter around his saloon. Any violation of this section shall be punishable by a fine of not less than Five Dollars ($5.00), nor more than Twenty-five Dollars ($25.00) for each offence, and upon complaint and proof that any saloonkeeper repeatedly violates this section of the ordinance his license may be revoked by the board of city commissioners.

Sec. 3. Any proprietor, keeper, bartender, clerk or any other person having charge or control of any saloon, bar room, billiard room or pool room, cigar store, bowling alley, or any other public place within the city of Las Vegas, who permits any minor to play or engage in, or be present at any game of billiards, pool, bowling or of cards, without the express consent of the parent or guardian of such minor, is guilty of a misdemeanor; and any minor who plays or engages in or is present at any game of billiards, pool, bowling or of cards in any public place within said city of Las Vegas, without the express consent of his parent or guardian, is likewise guilty of a misdemeanor.

Any person violating or wilfully non-complying with the provisions of this section shall be punished by a fine of not less than Five Dollars ($5.00) nor more than Twenty-five Dollars ($25.00) for each offence, or by imprisonment in the city jail, until such fine is paid not exceeding one day for each two dollars of such fine, in case such fine is not paid; and upon complaint and proof that any proprietor, keeper, or person in charge of any of the places mentioned in this section repeatedly violates this section or the ordinance the license for such place of business may be revoked by the board of city commissioners.
