

Ordinance No 109
108.

An Ordinance to Prohibit Children and Minors under the age of eighteen years from loitering around the Streets and other public places in the City of Las Vegas at night, providing penalties, and Repealing All Ordinances and Parts of Ordinances in Conflict Herewith.

The Board of Commissioners of the City of Las Vegas do Ordain, as follows:

Section 1. It shall be unlawful for any person under the age of eighteen years to loiter about, or frequent, the streets, alleys, public parks or other public or unoccupied grounds in the City of Las Vegas between the hours of Nine o'clock in the evening and six o'clock in the morning. It shall be the duty of any police officer finding any person violating this section to take the name and address of such person, direct such person to his or her home, and report such name, address and circumstances of the case to the City Marshal of the City of Las Vegas and the Probation Officer of Clark County, Nevada, as soon as possible; provided, however, that if such person shall refuse to give his or her name and address to the officer and depart for his or her home upon notice, it shall be the duty of such officer to take such person into custody and report the matter as aforesaid. For the purposes of this Ordinance there shall be no distinction in determining whether or not there has been a violation of this Ordinance whether the person so violating the same was at the time on foot, or on some animal, or in an automobile or some other kind of conveyance.

Section 2. Nothing in this Ordinance contained shall be construed to apply to any child or children who are in company of a parent, parents, guardian, or guardians, nor to any child or children who may be sent upon any proper, lawful or necessary errand by the parent, parents or guardian, nor to any child or children whose lawful employment makes it necessary to be upon said streets, public parks or other public or unoccupied grounds or public places during the night time as aforesaid.

Section 3. It shall be unlawful for any parent, guardian or other person having the legal care, custody or control of any person under the age of eighteen years to allow or permit any such child to loiter about or frequent the streets, public parks or other public or unoccupied grounds or public places in this City between the hours mentioned in Section 1 of this Ordinance, unless there be a reasonable, proper and lawful necessity therefor.

Section 4. Any person violating Section 3 of this Ordinance shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not less than Five Dollars or more than One Hundred Dollars, or be imprisoned in the City Jail not less than Two and one-half days nor more than Fifty days, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

Section 5. For the purpose of assisting in the enforcement of this Ordinance, it is hereby declared to be the duty of the person in charge of the Central Fire Station of the City of Las Vegas, at the hour of Nine o'clock of every evening, to cause the fire bell to be rung for thirty seconds at said Fire Station.

Section 6. All Ordinances and parts of ordinances in conflict herewith are hereby repealed.

Section 7. This Ordinance shall take effect and be in force immediately upon its passage, approval and publication for one week (one issue) in Las Vegas Review, a weekly newspaper published at Las Vegas, Nevada.

Section 8. The City Clerk and Clerk of the Board of City Commissioners of the City of Las Vegas is hereby authorized and directed to have this Ordinance No. 109 published in said Las Vegas Review for one week (one issue).
