II and ASSESSMENT UNIT NO. III on a lineal foot basis, i.e., on the basis that each lot or parcel of property that is to be assessed in either of such assessment units shall be assessed a portion of the aggregate dollar amount that is being levied against the particular entire assessment unit in the proportion that the number of lineal feet of such lot or parcel that abut, and are benefited by, the improvement bears to the number of lineal feet of all of the assessable properties that abut, and are benefited by, the improvement in that assessment unit (provided, however, that, if any such lot or parcel is divided, after the date of the hearing as to the propriety and advisability of making such improvement but prior to the date on which the assessments are levied by ordinance, pursuant to NRS 271.390, into sublots or subparcels, the assessment against such lot or parcel shall be apportioned among such sublots or subparcels on an area basis, i.e., on the basis that each such sublot or subparcel shall be assessed a portion of the aggregate dollar amount that is being levied against the entire lot or parcel in the proportion that the area of such sublot or subparcel bears to the aggregate area of the entire lot or parcel), against the assessable lots and parcels of property that abut the street along which the improvement that is installed in ASSESSMENT UNIT NO. IV, and are benefited by such improvement, on a front foot basis, i.e., on the basis that each lot or parcel of property that is to be assessed in the assessment unit shall be assessed a portion of the aggregate dollar amount that is being levied against the entire assessment unit in the proportion that the frontage of such lot or parcel that abuts the street along which the improvement is installed, and is benefited by such improvement, bears to the frontage of all of the assessable properties that abut the street along which the improvement is installed, and are benefited by such improvement, in the assessment unit (provided, however, that, if any such lot or parcel is divided, after the date of the hearing as to the propriety and advisability of making such improvement but prior to the date on which the assessments are levied by ordinance, pursuant to NRS 271.390, into sublots or subparcels, the assessment against such lot or parcel shall be apportioned among such sublots or subparcels on an area basis, i.e., on the basis that each such subplot or subparcel shall be assessed a portion of the aggregate dollar amount that is being levied against the entire lot or parcel in the proportion that the area of such subplot or subparcel bears to the aggregate area of the entire lot or parcel), against the assessable lots and parcels of property that are served by, and are to be assessed for, any improvement that is constructed and installed in ASSESSMENT UNIT NO. V on the basis that each lot or parcel of property that is served by, and is to be assessed for, any improvement that is constructed and installed in the assessment unit shall be assessed a portion of the aggregate dollar amount that is being levied against the entire assessment unit in the proportion that the number and length of the driveway approach or approaches that is or are constructed and installed to serve such lot or parcel bears or bear to the total number and aggregate length of all of the driveway approaches that are constructed and installed to serve all of the assessable properties in the assessment unit and against the assessable lots and parcels of property that are served by, and are to be assessed for, any improvement that is constructed and installed in ASSESSMENT UNIT NO. The portion of the costs that is to be assessed against, and the estimated amount of the maximum benefits that are anticipated will be derived from such improvements by, each lot or parcel of property in each of the individual assessment units shall be as is stated in the aforesaid assessment plat.

Regardless of the basis that is used in apportioning the assessments, in the case of a wedge, "V" or other irregularly shaped lot or parcel of property, the amount that is apportioned thereto shall be in proportion to the special benefits that will be derived thereby.
